

VOL. XXII. UKIAH, MENDOCINO CO., CAL.: FRIDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1897 NO. 15

AURIFEROUS NORTH.

TRINITY AND MENDOCINO ARE ALL RIGHT.

Sam T. Luce Reports Great Prospects in Old Trinity—Seth Dunham Proves Mendocino to be Very Rich in Gold-Bearing Rock.

TRINITY CENTER, October 3.—I have been in this community for two weeks and have traveled over much of the country and may be able to give your readers some items of interest. We left Ukiah September 9th and came through by Bartlett springs, Leesville, Elk creek, Paskenta, and Red Bluff to Redding, which place we reached on September 15th. At Redding we purchased our supplies and outfits, including a pack-horse, pack-saddle and complete packing kit, which I got from a returning Coffeediker for the paltry sum of ten dollars.

We arrived at this place Saturday noon, September 18th, and after a very pleasant Sunday we moved north ten or twelve miles and put in three days and a half prospecting on Eagle creek, Minnehaha and the Ram's Horn, and not finding any rich pockets or gold-bearing ledges or nuggets in the gravel of the streams my partners became discouraged and decided that the formation was not right and left Sunday last for French Gulch and other places in Shasta county.

I spent nearly all of last week prospecting on top of Scott's mountain, twenty-four miles north of here, where I surveyed five claims for some Lake county boys. We hope to locate all of the mountain tops and have a big boom there next spring. Messrs Scott and Pierce got rich up there, and a Mr. Crawford made $64,000 clear money from the sluices that he operated there. Some people leave here and report no gold and no gold-bearing quartz, but that's a great error.

The Ruggles & Peterson ledge, located about three weeks ago on Scorpion creek, has been bonded to a rich company for $20,000, payable in two years. Messrs Stoddard & Vollmers have a ledge up Squirrel Gulch from which a man can make five to ten dollars a day mortaring and panning the ore. A ledge recently found on Swift creek goes $190 per ton. Many other rich quartz and placer mines are being opened up here and there are hundreds more in the mountains yet to be found, but I would not advise any one to come in here now to strike it rich this year.

The days are short and the nights very cold and we look for rain any day, which may last till Christmas. Everything is high here. Hay 75 cents to $1.50 per cwt., and oats and rolled barley 3 cents, flour $1.65 per sack, bacon 14 and 15 cents, coffee 25 cents per pound, sugar 11 pounds for $1, and other things in proportion. Good board and lodging can be had at $5.50 per week.

Anyone with the Randsburg or Alaska fever should take a trip up here this fall for a few weeks after the first rain and climb over these granite mountains for awhile, or skate down some of these serpentine bedrocks for half a day in the cold wind and the fever will be greatly lessened or entirely leave them. The incidents, miserable or amusing, of a prospector's life in the rocky regions of Trinity will be reserved for a future time.

S. T. LUCE.

The Mendocino Outlook.

J. M. Dill was down from Laytonville Tuesday and stated to a reporter for THE PRESS that the people in that section of the county are greatly interested in the mining developments recently made there.

Some very promising leads have been discovered by Seth Dunham, an old miner and a wellknown resident of the Laytonville section. Mr. Dunham, accompanied by a son of Mr. Dill, has been prospecting extensively in northern Mendocino, and has located thirteen claims. The lowest returns received from specimens sent to the Selby Smelting company are $25 a ton, and the ledge is a well-defined one and has been traced for miles.

Mr. Dunham was the discoverer of the Knoxville and Great Western mines, and is thoroughly well posted in mineral bearing rock. He says that beyond a doubt the Laytonville section is one of the richest in the country.

The new discoveries are about 12 miles northeast of Laytonville and are on the line of the Red Mountain prospect. At the latter place Messrs John Graham of Eureka and John Beaumont and Dougald Mackellar of Laytonville have located some handsome prospects. They will begin sinking a shaft next week.

When they first struck the lead they are to develop the ore assayed $5 a ton but the deeper they go the richer the returns appear. The latest assay showed $15 to the ton, and one of the gentlemen will go down to San Francisco during the coming week for the purpose of arranging for the purchase of a 10-stamp mill.

The first installment of state and county taxes becomes due Monday next and delinquent November 29th. The only change made in the law at the late session of the legislature was that wherein the first installment becomes due the second Monday in October instead of the first.

The trial of the board of supervisors for misdemeanor in office is set for Monday next. The board has retained Messrs Cooper, White, Seawell and Pemberton to defend it. The people will be represented by District Attorney Sturtevant and John MacNab.

R. W. Sutter of this city was committed to the asylum Wednesday by Judge Mannon. For several days previous to his arrest the patient had been developing pronounced evidences of insanity, his mania being of a religious character. Sutter was the proprietor of a lumberyard in this city and up to a year or so ago had been employed in the Beckley mill at Low Gap.

Dell W. Scammon, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Scammon of this city, died in Stockton Sunday last and was brought here Tuesday and interred in the Odd Fellows' cemetery. The deceased left home June last to pick fruit in Yolo county, but was taken sick with chills and fever, and went to the Stockton state hospital September 10th. He was then taken with typhoid pneumonia and died October 3d. Deceased was 19 years of age.

Louis W. Howard and Miss Bessie Chambers, both of Ukiah, Sunday afternoon plighted their troth at the home of the groom's parents, and were pronounced man and wife by Rev. G. W. Disher of Willits. The wedding was a quiet affair, characterized by simplicity, as only a few of their intimate friends were present. The bride was dressed very becomingly. A dinner was served, and the menu was well selected, containing all the delicacies of the season. At the conclusion of the dinner the party took their leave, wishing the two a long and happy life. z.

District Attorney Sturtevant and T. L. Carothers returned from Mendocino Wednesday evening, whither they had gone to try the case of the people against the Albion Lumber company. The complaint was sworn to by Herman Flyger, who charged the company with a violation of the labor law, which requires monthly payment of wages. The company alleges that it has leased the mill and logging camps to H. B. Hickey, and does not therefore come under the statute inhibiting labor contract. The case was tried before Justice Canning Smith and was taken under advisement. The case is criminal in its nature.

OUTRE OCCURRENCES.

FUNNY FREAKS AND PECULIAR HAPPENINGS.

Weekly Budget of Things Which Take Place Without Apparent Provocation. Incidents and Accidents Due to Planetary Influences.

A team of fifteen local high-school athletes leave on the noon train today for San Francisco to attend the games at the Olympic racetrack. The competitive events will be fifteen in number and seventeen high-school teams will take part, so that in case Ukiah wins one first event she will have more than her natural percentage. The boys have been training assiduously for the occasion, and they are confident that they will make a good showing. On the 16th inst the local high-school team will meet the Mendocino boys at Big river in a match game of football, and a week later will play the Belmont boys on the local oval. The struggle between the Mount Tamalpais athletes and the Ukiah boys is scheduled for the 30th, but the place of meeting has not yet been selected.

A Bad Runaway.

Henry Waugh, who lives a few miles east of this city, was thrown from a wagon last week and painfully injured. He was coming down a steep grade on the Lost valley road when his horses became unmanageable and ran away. Mr. Waugh was thrown violently from the wagon, which was hurled down a steep grade and badly demolished. The horses broke away from the wagon and ran down the hill and lodged between two trees, one of which it was found necessary to cut down before the animals could be released. Mr. Waugh was badly cut about the face and head, but the wounds, while painful, are more or less superficial. Mr. Waugh is to be congratulated on his escape from serious injury.

A Very Live Corpse.

If anyone imagines Tennessee Bill is dead they should hear him shout. He drifted into town Saturday last, but his arrival was not heralded with the usual warwhoop. He was quite subdued, for the news of his resurrection had preceded him and he did not care to accentuate his return to earth. Bill claims that an Auburn paper is responsible for the general circulation of his obituary. He says that while in Marysville he received letters from a brother in Oregon and gave them to an Appeal man to keep. After Bill left the town a man died in the city prison and it was given out that the famous pedestrian had taken his last trip. But Bill isn't dead.

Jeff Davis in Trouble.

Jeff Davis has been arrested, and this time there is no controversy as to the identity of his captor. Neither was he dressed in female apparel. Joel Eveland, the Round valley magistrate, issued the warrant, and it was sworn to by Tall Charley, a wellknown resident of northern Mendocino. Tall Charley alleges in his complaint that Jeff became enamored of a pretty sorrel mare and appropriated her to his own use. Tall Charley objected and caused the namesake of the noted Confederate president to be placed in the local jail and held for trial for grand larceny.

Camp Ukiah.

The Ukiah boys crossed Chilcoot pass safely and are now at Dawson city. They purchased five horses at Dyea and got all their goods over to Lake Linderman in good shape and without accident or incident worthy of note. They paid $1100 for the animals and disposed of them as soon as they got across the pass. The boys were in perfect health when last heard from, and although the work of traveling was difficult and dangerous they thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

A Hunting Accident.

Frank Hoadley, the son of J. F. Hoadley, formerly of this city but now a resident of Trinity Mine, Shasta county, was wounded so badly in the left arm last week as to require the amputation of the limb. The young fellow was out hunting and his gun was accidentally discharged. The bullet inflicted a jagged wound, and one so serious that the physicians in charge were compelled to amputate in order to save the boy's life.

A Fire Near Largo.

A fire started in the barn of A. V. MacNab, who resides near Largo, Wednesday morning last and destroyed the building and its contents. By strenuous exertions the horses in the barn were saved, but hay, harness and farming implements were destroyed. The aggregate loss was estimated by Mr. MacNab to be about $900, on which there was no insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Arrested in Sherwood.

Constable Lew Norton of Healdsburg arrested a man named John Chambers in Sherwood valley yesterday on a warrant charging him with having obtained property by false pretenses. It seems that Chambers had pledged a span of horses and a wagon to a man in Geyserville for $40. He afterward asked permission to use the outfit for a short time, promising to return it. Instead of having done as he agreed he immediately took the road for Humboldt county. The constable came up on the noon train Wednesday and overtook his man in Sherwood. The officer and his captive left for the south this morning.

No Clew to the Bandits.

The officers of the law who have been on the trail of the outlaws who murdered J. R. Barnett on the 27th ult. have yet no progress to report. Numerous clews have been investigated but all to no purpose. Suspected men have been arrested in San Francisco, in Oakland, Healdsburg, Napa and Santa Rosa, but they invariably proved to be the wrong men. Sheriff Johnson is in San Francisco following up his theory that the bandits moved at once in that direction after having held up the stages.

Sam Blodes Stabbed.

Sam Blodes, formerly of this city but now a resident of San Francisco, was stabbed in the region of the heart Saturday evening last and narrowly escaped death. Sam is the manager of an Ellis-street variety theatre, and in attempting to evict a boisterous visitor he was assaulted and wounded with a knife. Sam's stomach development interfered with the fellow's aim and saved a life.

A Residence Burglarized.

Burglars entered the residence of Mrs. Fowzer, east of the Grand hotel, Saturday last, and ransacked the dwelling. They failed to discover any money to reward their exertions, but helped themselves to a good meal. No trace of the thieves has been found.

TO HAVE AN OBSERVATORY.

Ukiah to Be Selected as a Point for Determining a Stellar Question

C. H. Sinclair of the United States coast and geodetic survey arrived from Washington a few days ago and is quartered at the Grand hotel. Mr. Sinclair is here for the purpose of determining the exact latitude of this city. He is an expert in that kind of work and for that reason was selected by the department at Washington. Ukiah city has been on the map for a good many years, but according to Mr. Sinclair it has never been in the right place. Its local time has never been exact for the same reason. In fact ever since the city was founded its clocks and watches have been wrong. The only correct timepieces have been the hourglasses and the sun dials with the aid of the almanac.

Mr. Sinclair came up Saturday last and at once proceeded to business. He will take observations of the stars and will compare the meridian time with that of San Francisco, whose longitude is known, for the purpose of discovering the error. In this he will be assisted by the telegraph.

When the work shall have been completed Ukiah will assume her proper place on the map invested with all the dignity of a city with a well-defined longitude. Besides this she will have the honor of having one of the six observatories of the world, as stated in a former issue of THE PRESS.

Living Beyond Income.

Many people are living among luxuries which are suited to their tastes and their desires, but are not suited to anything else about them. Their circumstances—would we could thoroughly apply that word—are not their real surroundings, not those of their proper standing.

The false start is made with the wedding presents. Foolish friends give to the bride of the young clerk or bookkeeper articles of luxury suited to an establishment that should expend $10,000 a year. It would knock out a great deal of the sentiment no doubt for wealthy and liberal well wishers to send a check expressive of their interest, but it would give a little freedom to the newly married folks to put it away for a future demanding more expense. Of course the foolish bride might instantly spend it in some personal or furnishing finery—might feel under obligations to the giver to do so, when the money should be considered rather as a "nest egg."

As it is now, everything is made hard for them. They are expected to compete in church and out of it with incomes five times their own. They are asked to contribute with the rich to every charity that is going. They have never studied the economies of housekeeping or cooking, and neither of them knows how to save coals or how to teach the ignorant servants who come into their service.—Good Housekeeping.

Curious Freaks of Razors.

The finest grades of razors are so delicate that even the famous Damascus sword blades cannot equal them in texture. It is not generally known that the grain of a Swedish razor is so sensitive that its general direction is changed after a short service.

When you buy a fine razor, the grains run from the upper end of the outer point in a diagonal direction toward the handle. Constant stropping will twist the steel until the grain appears to be straight up and down. Subsequent use will drag the grain outward from the edge, so that after steady use for several months the fiber of the steel occupies a position exactly the reverse of that which it did on the day of purchase.

The process also affects the temper of the blade, and when the grain sets from the lower outer points toward the back you have a razor which cannot be kept in condition even by the most conscientious barber.

But here's another curious freak that will take place in the same tool:

If you leave the razor alone for a month or two and take it up, you will find that the grain has assumed its first position. The operation can be repeated until the steel is worn through to the back.—Strand Magazine.

The White Whale's Tail.

Looking at the white whale at the aquarium a person not familiar with water animals might be mildly astonished to see that creature lean outward when swimming around in a circle, instead of inward. Seeking the cause of this, the observer unfamiliar with whales would discover that the whale's tail is set not in a vertical plane as is the case of fishes, but in a horizontal plane.

Set horizontally instead of vertically, the whale's tail is of the very greatest assistance to it in diving, and especially in rising promptly to the surface, which it is necessary for it to do at intervals to fill its lungs with air.

Going over again to the wall tanks, the observer may note again, and this time with a new interest, that all the fishes there have tails up and down, in line with the body, in a vertical plane, and he learns upon inquiry that all fishes have tails in a vertical plane, and that all aquatic mammals, of which the whale is one, have tails set exactly the other way, in a horizontal plane.—New York Sun.

Salvation Army Marriages.

In speaking of the Salvation Army marriage bureau which he recently established General Booth says: "I would that we had some such arrangement for every soldier in our ranks. Beyond question it will come to that. Indeed I shall not be surprised to find myself looking down from heaven in future years and seeing the whole business of the selection of partners for marriage intrusted to councils of the wisest, most experienced and spiritual of our officers, who will arrange not only who each officer and soldier shall marry, but the time of the event, and, in certain cases, whether they shall marry at all, instead of the business being left to the haphazard, accidental, irrational system—or no system at all—of individual choice as at present."

It Takes Wings.

I knew Daniel Drew when he had $19,000,000, and he died in debt. I knew a gentleman who at one time had $3,000,000 in the bank who is now earning about $1,200 a year. The $3,000,000 was in cash, in addition to his investments of various kinds. There are a dozen men in New York who ask me for occasional loans of from 50 cents to $5 who, when I first came to New York, were among the rich men of the town. —Chauncey M. Depew.

Mendocino Visitors.

A camping party consisting of W. P. Miller and wife of Ukiah, O. T. Wells and E. F. DeCamp of Willits, arrived here Wednesday last, says the Eureka Standard. The campers have been on the way from Willits since Thursday last. They left their pack train and camping outfit at Scotia and came in on the train Monday morning. They report that the trip was the most delightful ever taken by any member of the party. They had plenty of deer and game of all sorts. The roads are reported by the party as being simply perfect. Mr. DeCamp says that the roads through the mountains in this county could not be improved on and that they are far ahead of any in Mendocino. The timber, he says, is simply grand. Mendocino cannot show any timber to compare with that along Eel river and Mr. De Camp avers that he would rather take the trip than to go to Europe. While on the way up they were very fortunate in encountering only the most pleasant weather and everything seemed to work for their comfort. They will remain in this city two or three days.

This morning the latest style in men's, youths' and boys' suits was received by W. A. Hoffman. Dress in style as long as it costs no more.

Morning subject at Christian church, The Inside Track of Life; evening, Voices From the Grave.

AN OPPORTUNITY

When It Is Once Lost Can Never Be Regained.

Here is an opportunity to purchase a piano at prices and terms in reach of all. The Chicago Cottage Organ company of Chicago, through their general agent, proposes to sell fifteen pianos in Ukiah and vicinity within thirty days. Times are hard but here is a hardtimes proposition. This company is the largest piano and organ manufacturing company in the world. Their organ sales are eighteen thousand every year, an organ every five minutes. They sell over four hundred pianos every month in the year. Every city in the United States has an agency that sells pianos and organs manufactured by this company. This territory is under no agency control, hence the experiment of retailing a car of fifteen pianos in thirty days direct from the manufacturers. The stock is a good assortment and many people in this locality have purchased pianos manufactured by this company in years past. The capital of the Chicago Cottage Organ company, according to commercial reports, shows a million dollars paid up. Their guarantee is certainly all right. So much for the company, now for the opportunity.

A good mahogany-finish piano $207; a beautifully constructed Kingsbury piano, full brilliant tone, $252; another with muffler attachment, $297, and so on down the list. The terms will be cash, or on monthly payments. Old organs or pianos taken in exchange. The most wonderful piano ever manufactured is the Schubert mandolin piano—a piano with an attachment so constructed that the player can imitate mandolin, guitar, banjo and harp. A careful investigation is kindly solicited. Room northwest corner of court house square.

T. H. CHRISTIANER,
General Agent.

What the Citizens Say.

The lecture course is meeting with the approbation of the citizens. Prof. Dillingham warmly commends the lectures, and says such a series is a splendid project and will be very beneficial to the community.

L. W. Babcock—I take pleasure in commending the lecture course arranged by the Young People's society to all students especially; also to any others interested in self-improvement.

J. M. Mannon—I have carefully examined the program of the Ukiah lecture course, both as to the subject matter and as to the personnel of the lecturers. The various subjects embraced within the course cannot fail to be highly instructive and entertaining, while the names of the lecturers themselves guarantee a feast of learning and mental enjoyment in their treatment of any subject which is made the basis of literary or scientific culture.

Arthur J. Thatcher—These lectures, having a tendency to overcome the mental inertia generally prevalent in towns of this size, and to stimulate the minds of the listeners to activity, will be of incalculable benefit to the community, and should therefore be liberally patronized.

Indications of Prosperity.

The wave still continues to advance. B. Marks has let the contract for the remodeling of the old Cunningham building on State street, below the Grand hotel. A new front will be put in and three storerooms fitted up. One will be occupied by a milliner from Santa Rosa. The same gentleman will also at once begin the erection of a brick building on the Moore lot next to the express office. One of the rooms in the latter building will be occupied as a bakery by a gentleman from San Francisco. F. M. Mason is arranging his new hall on the site of the old Baptist church, and will have one of the cosiest little theaters on the coast. It will have a seating capacity of about 500.

Another Ass Born.
Dispatch.

Why did the illustrious district attorney advise the grand jury that nothing could be done with Assessor McFaul because his bondsmen had settled with the county? And why did this supervisorial grand jury accept any such advice? Is it on the theory that if a man robs the stage and gives the money back to Wells, Fargo & Co., he must not be punished?

What a Model Bakery Should Be.

What should be the essential conditions of a model bakery? First, the building should be above ground, perfectly drained and ventilated, well organized, absolutely clean, and the expense of labor should be of no consideration. The men should be systematically inspected with regard to their personal cleanliness, having, in the first place, been selected for employment on the ground of their good general health and temperance. The hours of labor should be limited, and convenience for washing purposes should be provided. The buildings should be dustproof, in order to make dust contamination impossible. The ovens should be fired at the back of and not in the bakehouse itself. Water used should be of the very best and guaranteed quality, and, in order that only a proper proportion should be used for its corresponding equivalent of flour, it should be measured by meter. These are, roughly, the essentials to a typical bakehouse.—New

A RETIRED BUSINESS WOMAN

A Page From Her History.

The important experiences of others are interesting. The following is no exception: "I had been troubled with heart disease 28 years, much of that time very seriously. For five years I was treated by one physician continuously. I was in business, but obliged to retire on account of my health. A physician told my friends that I could not live a month. My feet and limbs were badly swollen, and I was indeed in a serious condition when a gentleman directed my attention to Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and said that his sister, who had been afflicted with heart disease, had been cured by the remedy, and was again a strong, healthy woman. I purchased a bottle of the Heart Cure, and in less than an hour after taking the first dose I could feel a decided improvement in the circulation of my blood. When I had taken three doses I could move my ankles, something I had not done for months, and my limbs had been swollen so long that they seemed almost putrified. Before I had taken one bottle of the New Heart Cure the swelling had all gone down, and I was so much better that I did my own work. On my recommendation six others are taking this valuable remedy."—Mrs. Morgan, 669 W. Harrison St., Chicago, Ill.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, a discovery of an eminent specialist in heart disease, is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It is positively free from all opiates or dangerous drugs.
